CASE NUMBER: 1:14-CR-808-GHW

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant shall submit her person, residence, place of business, vehicle, or any other premises under her control to a search on the basis that the probation officer has reasonable belief that contraband or evidence of a violation of the conditions of the release may be found. The search must be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to search pursuant to this condition.

The defendant shall participate in an outpatient treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office, which program may include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to using drugs or alcohol. The defendant shall contribute to the costs of services rendered based on the defendant's ability to pay or availability of third-party payment. The Court authorizes the release of available drug treatment evaluations and reports, including the presentence investigation report, to the substance abuse treatment provider.

The defendant shall participate in an outpatient mental health treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office. The defendant shall continue to take any prescribed medication unless otherwise instructed by the health care provider. The defendant shall contribute to the cost of services rendered based on the defendant's ability to pay and the availability of third-party payments. The Court authorizes the release of available psychological and psychiatric evaluations and reports, including the presentence investigation report, to the health care provider.

The defendant shall not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer unless the defendant is in compliance with the installment payment schedule.

In the event that the defendant secures a position that allows her unsupervised access and/or control over an individual's, corporation's or other non-natural person's assets, she shall inform her employer of her conviction for this offense.

The defendant shall provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.

The defendant shall be supervised in her district of residence.

The defendant is to report to the nearest Probation Office within 72 hours of release from custody.
